Frankenstein; Or, The Modern Prometheus by Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley

Total words in novel: 69403
Total unique words in novel: 6844
Most frequent words:
['the', 'and', 'i', 'of', 'to', 'my', 'a', 'in', 'was', 'that', 'me', 'had', 'but', 'with', 'he', 'it', 'you', 'which', 'not', 'as']

Most interesting frequent words:
['not', 'myself', 'upon', 'into', 'its', 'eyes', 'being', 'towards', 'elizabeth', 'whom', 'feelings', 'miserable', 'passed', 'became', 'sometimes', 'clerval', 'indeed', 'friends', 'justine', 'appeared']

20 Least Frequent words:
['1', 'genevese', 'republic', 'ancestors', 'counsellors', 'syndics', 'reputation', 'illustrate', 'relating', 'mischances', 'proud', 'unbending', 'debts', 'truest', 'persuading', 'effectual', 'measures', 'reuss', 'fortunes', 'respectable']

Interesting word usage pattern: "Frankenstein"

The word is only used in the final chapter of the novel as a recap of the plot scenario and its implications rather than during the events of the story. I find it especially interesting that they only used this word in hindsight of the events.

[0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 2, 1, 2, 2, 0, 3, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 1, 0, 1, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 12]

Favorite quote:

"What can stop the determined heart and resolved will of man?" Letter 3

Generated sentence: "This nothing but the trial I had suggested to the various languages engaged heart and had created"